MONCTON (NEW BRUNSWICK) - May 22, 2015 - The Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce (GMCC) held its Annual General Meeting on Thursday May 21, 2015 and welcomed four new board members.

Scott Lewis, of Louisbourg Investments, chaired the 124th annual general meeting at the Cocoa Room in Riverview in front of nearly 100 local business leaders.

“I am grateful to be working with so many talented people who have both a strong influence and passion for our local business community,” said Chair Lewis. “Your dedication helps ensure the Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce continues to be successful in helping our members prosper.”

Mr. Lewis will continue to serve as Chair for 2015-2016.

First Vice Chair Mathieu LeBlanc from RBC Dominion Securities Inc., Second Vice Chair Felipe Jimenez Delucio from Sunbelt Business Brokers Atlantic, and Secretary-Treasurer Gisèle Léger from EY were also sworn in by the Chamber. Tom Badger from Advocate Printing & Publishing will continue to serve on the Board as Past Chair for one more year. The Chamber thanked outgoing board members Claude Allard, Rachelle Gagnon, Marc Gallant and Myles Malley.

“We have been the voice of the business community for 124 years and continue to watch Dieppe, Moncton and Riverview grow and reach new heights with each passing year,” said CEO Carol O’Reilly during her presentation. “The economic climate has been an uphill battle for many lately, and we realize this: if you are winning then we are winning, too. If you are not, then we are here to support you.”

Thursday morning’s AGM also provided the opportunity to recognize two very dedicated Chamber members: Gisèle Léger, Senior Manager with EY, was presented with the Volunteer of the Year award. Tom Badger from Advocate Printing & Publishing was presented with a plaque as Outgoing Chair for his dedication to the Chamber.

Finally, the Chamber presented scholarships to three local students: Alex Boyd from Bernice MacNaughton High School, Joel Emond from École secondaire Mathieu Martin and Kyra Fowler from Harrison Trimble High School.

Students were presented with the $1,000.00 scholarships by Bill Dixon, Chair of the Board of Trustees for the Greater Moncton Chamber of Commerce.
